

ACT CENTERS

The Pacific Center for Advanced Technology Training (PCATT) provides online training to organizations and individuals in ACT Centers located at Honolulu Community College, Maui Community College, and Hawai'i Community College Business and Technology Training Institute (Kona). ACT, Inc., a provider of assessment, research, information, and program management services, is well known for its ACT college assessment tests. The three Hawai'i community colleges are designated host institutions in the growing network of over 100 ACT Centers nationwide.

What We Offer

ACT, Inc. has prepared an extensive and growing courseware library of over 800 titles that cover a wide range of topics aimed at continuing workforce development:

- Adult Literacy/Employability Skills
- Computers and Information Technology
- English as a Second Language (ESL)
- Industrial Technology and Safety Skills
- Management/Leadership and Small Business Operation
- Professional and Personal Development

Benefits for Organizations

- Training in a convenient, comfortable location
- Flexible hours
- Reasonable rates
- On-demand services for individuals or groups
- High-quality, valid, reliable assessments at an affordable cost
- State-of-the-art technology needed to deliver training efficiently

Benefits for Individuals

- Convenient access to programs to enhance skills and careers
- A broader range and higher quality of training than have been available before
- A way for individuals to keep their skills on the cutting edge

Website: www.hcc.hawaii.edu/act

